VICTIM MAY DIE.

James A. Hallowee Charged With Making Murderous Assault. James W. Taylor, forty years old, a watchman at the flying horses at 2d and brick last night about 10 o'clock, the missile striking him back of his right ear and crushing his skull. When he reached the Casualty Hospital he was unconscious and the surgeons determined that an operation was necessary. The operation was performed shortly after midnight and four pieces of the skull were removed. It was found that a hemorrhage of the brain had esulted, but fortunately the brain was not injured to any great extent. This morning Policemen Green and Jackson of the fourth precinct arrested a young colored man named James H. Hollowee, suspected of being the assailant, and locked him up to await the result of Taylor's injuries. Hollowee had been in the cell but a short time before he admitted that he had thrown the brick and subsequently why.

Taylor's home is at 1215 O street northeast. He was employed as watchman by the owner of the flying horses when they were operated at Florida avenue and 14th street northeast. He continued in the service of the owner of the horses when the outilt was removed to Southwest Washington and was acting in the discharge of his duties last night when he received the blow which may cause his death. There were several colored men about the horses last night, all said to be under the influence of liquor, and the watchman ordered them away. They obeyed his order, but one of them was heard to mutter something about getting even with the watchman. This man, it is alleged, was Hollowee. A few minutes after the men were ordered away Hollowee returned and threw the brick. Taylor was standing at the ticket office in conversation with his employer when he was struck. He fell to the ground from he was struck. He fell to the ground from the force of the blow and was taken to a drug store, where his wound was dressed. The seriousness of the injury was ap-parent, and the police had the wounded man removed to the hospital. Detectives Hartigan, Baur and Cornwell were detailed Hartigan, Baur and Cornwell were detailed on the case this morning, and they assisted the fourth precinct officers. Hollowee was arrested near his home in Quinn's court. In his confession to the police he said he was under the influence of liquor last night and that he was ordered away from the flying horses because he had his hand on the rope. Taylor, he stated, brushed against his arm and afterward he said the discontinuous contraction. his arm and afterward, he said, the officer struck him on the arm. Then he was driven away by two policemen. The policemen, he stated, left just after driving him away and he then threw a brick at the watchman. He said he did not wait to see if the missile struck him, but ran off. He is held for assault with a dangerous weapon, and will be committed to jail tomorrow unless his victim dies in the meantime. At the hospital this afternoon it was stated that the patient was resting comfortably, although his condition was seri-weekly report of Health Officer Woodward, submitted to the Commissioners today, shows that the deaths in the District of Columbia during the week ended on Saturday, September 17, 1904, numbered 87, which is 14 less than occurred last week, and one less than during the corresponding period of last year. Of these recent deaths 47 were among the white population and 40 were colored. These represent a death rate of 11.6 per 1,000 of the white inhabitants, 22.7 of the colored, and a death rate for the entire population of 15.0. The respective rates for the corresponding period of 1903 were 13.2, 20.5 and 15.5.

DECREASE IN DEATHS.

The prevailing diseases responsible for the mortality of last week were as follows: Diseases of the heart, 12; apoplexy, 9; pul-monary consumption, 9; diarrheal diseases. 6; typhoid fever, 6, and diseases of kid-neys, 5. Deaths by violence were: Acci-dental, 2; suicide, 1. Of contagious diseases diphtheria shows

12 new cases reported and the same num-ber discharged, leaving 20 cases under ob-servation, quarantined in 11 different premses.

Scarlet fever cases were reduced by 2, there having been 7 new cases reported and 9 discharged, which leaves 32 cases quarantined in 22 different premises.
As compared with the previous week, typhold fever shows a reduction from 50 to 46 in the number of cases reported; 46 cases having developed and 28 having been discharged, 278 cases remained under treatment at the close of the week.
No new cases of smallpox have been re-

No new cases of smallpox have been re-ported, and the District is entirely free from this disease.

The number of births reported during the week was 170, of which 102 were white children and 68 were colored.

The weather conditions prevalent during the past week, as reported by the weather bureau, were as follows: Mean temperature, 66 degrees; mean relative humidity, 87 per cent; mean actual barometer, 30.00. The winds were northeasterly in direction, averaging 5.8 miles an hour, and reached on the 14th and 15th a velocity of 34 miles. on the 12th instant, and the minimum 46 degrees, on the 16th. In Memoriam. BROWN. In loving remembrance of my dear mother, MARY BROWN, who died one year ago today, September 22, 1903. Gone, but not forgotten.

· BY HER DAUGHTER, JOSEPHINE ROSE.

HOLLIN. In sad but loving remembrance of our dear daughter, NELLIE V. HOLLIN, who de-parted this life one year ago today, September 22, 1903. We laid her away in her silent grave, With tear-dimmed eyes and broken heart; And little we thought when in life How soon we had to part.

And one we loved so dearly,
We tried in vain to save,
Lies in the graveyard softly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave. BY HER PARENTS.
